Sync O

The Effortless Connection

Silicone, rechargeable couples vibrator designed for effortless wear during sex. Sync O's special O-shape keeps your toy securely in place, giving you vibrations that both partners can enjoy, right where you want them.

What is it

Sync O is a new kind of C-Shape vibrator for pleasure seekers looking for the perfect, hands-free fit. The outer arm rests against the clitoris while the flexible O-shaped inner arm fits comfortably and securely in the vagina ensuring the vibes stay right where you want them. We-Vibe's unique C-shape innovation gives effortless, hands-free stimulation that offers delicious vibrations that can be enjoyed solo or in partner play.

Who it's for

It is primarily for couples who may already own a C-Shape couples vibrator and are looking for an improved fit/feel. Sync O is also for people who haven't had any experience in the past with couples vibrators. They are seeking a toy that offers a smooth, effortless experience, quality features, and simple, intuitive use.

How to control

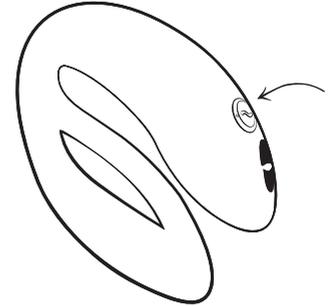

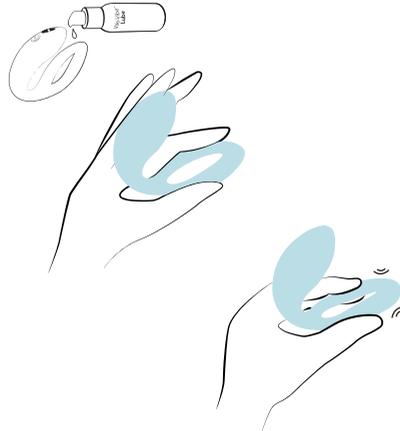

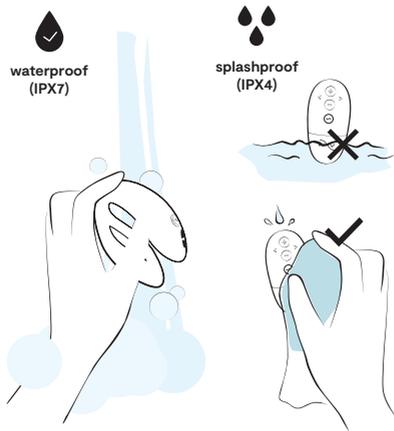

Sync O uses simple, single-button controls. To turn on, press the control button on the toy. To cycle through vibration modes and intensity levels, press the control button again. Hold down the button to turn the toy off again. Sync O can be controlled using the remote, or the We-Vibe app, for varied play – even over distances.

How to charge

Simply charge Sync O via USB cable – your toy provides up to 150 minutes of play on one full 90-minute charge.

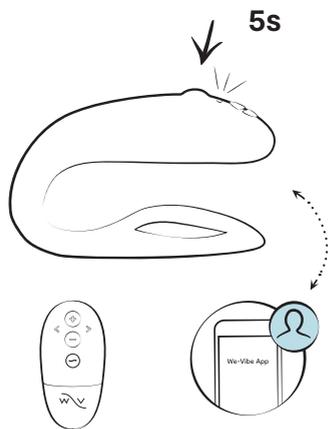

How to play

1. Before using Sync O, use a damp cloth and premium toy cleaner. Dry it with a lint-free cloth.

2. Apply a little lube to the internal arm of the toy and squeeze the flexible inner arm to allow easy insertion. The soft O-shaped loop unfolds once inside and lightweight for a comfortable and secure fit.

3. With the toy inserted, turn the toy on by pressing the control button on its base.

4. Cycle through different vibration pattern modes and intensity levels by using the control button on the toy or the We-Vibe app. You can also use the remote to control the toy.

5. Enjoy shared vibrations by wearing the toy during penetration.

What testers say

“The O-shape inner portion of the toy just works so well – it feels great for the wearer and for a partner. It’s so much easier than trying to hold a vibrator in the right place during sex!”

„I loved how smooth and silky it is, really comfortable to wear... even if you’re using it for a long time... It really added something extra to our play and had us coming eagerly back for more.”

„My partner and I really felt this toy was a “level up” moment in our sex life! It was like we got a chance to start again with a whole new set of possibilities... Really, really recommend this to any couple looking to get that “spark” going!”

“We-Vibe always deliver quality – the feel-good silicone, the reliable and rechargeable battery, the strong vibrations and the fact it’s totally waterproof... Hands down a cut above the rest.”
